

Petzl is recalling its PIRANA descenders

Petzl is recalling its PIRANA descenders (D005AA00 and D005AA01) due to a drowning risk if the rope accidentally gets blocked in the blocking slot. Owners of these products should immediately stop using the descenders affected by this recall.

PIRANA
D005AA00

PIRANA
D005AA01

The affected products are PIRANA descenders (D005AA00 and D005AA01) with serial numbers between 19 F 0000000 000 and 22 A 9999999 999, sold from July 2019 to January 2022.

Owners of these products should immediately stop using the descenders affected by this recall and can return them to the Petzl after-sales service in their country. They will be offered a refund. Petzl will pay for the return shipping costs.
